

Grace Community Church—International Short-term Team Disclaimer and Release of Liability

_____, hereby voluntarily releases and (Name of team member or, if minor, names of both parents) discharges Grace Community Church, the organization(s) and individuals, who will administratively organize and conduct this mission trip to _____ for team member _____. Their employees, agents, officers, directors, elders, members, and volunteers are released from all claims of liabilities, suits, actions, judgments, or executions that might arise as a result of the aforementioned team member's participation in this mission trip.

I have read the information provided the team member about this trip and I understand the inherent risks associated with it. I understand that international travel is uncertain and can be dangerous. I also understand that conditions in some places to which the team member will travel are not the same standard to which accustomed. The increased risk to health and physical safety is understood and accepted, and it is understood that in some countries there is an added risk of detainment for the team member and personal property.

I understand that this document constitutes a full and complete waiver of all possible claims, including personal injury and property damage arising out of the aforementioned team member's participation. I agree to be legally bound by this statement.
